Messieurs Job, Wilson, Bond, Smith, Chafe.

Sent to the senate by Mr. Sprigg and Mr. Burgefs.

William Hindman, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker the resolve of Saturday last respecting the charters, acts of assemblies, and resolves of the conventions of the neighbouring states, &c. thus endorsed; "By the senate, November 23, 1778: Read and assented to.

"By order, R. RIDGELY, cl. sen."

Thomas Jenings, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker the resolution of Saturday last respecting general Washington's letter, thus endorsed; "By the senate, November 24, 1778: "Read and assented to with amendments herewith sent.

"By order, R. RIDGELY, cl. sen."

In the seventh line of the resolution respecting rank, strike out the word "house" and insert "general assembly." In the tenth line after the words "resolved that," strike out "it is the opinion of this house." In the 21st line after the word "those," strike out "of," and after the word "similar" in the same line, strike out "rank," and insert "holding similar commissions."

Which amendments were read and agreed to.

The application of John Davidson for the loan of five nine pounders, was read the second time, and on motion, the question was put, That the following, to wit. RESOLVED, That the governor and council be empowered to lend to the owners of the ship Buckskin, the five nine pounders belonging to this state now lying at the Indian Landing, upon their engaging to return the same in good order, or in case of loss or damage, to pay such sum of money as the same shall be estimated at by persons to be appointed by the governor and council for that purpose, or to return nine pounders equally as good and substantial as those lent, at the option of the governor and council; be entered as the resolve of this house? Resolved in the affirmative.
