The said resolve was sent to the senate by Mr. Hughes and Mr. Digges.

Agreeable to the order of the day the house took into consideration the state of the navy, with the requisition of congress and other papers relative thereto, and came to the following resolves:

RESOLVED, That the governor and the council be empowered and requested to cause two of the square rigged galleys belonging to this state, called the Baltimore and Independence, to be completely fitted and manned, to join the galleys belonging to the state of Virginia, and proceed on the intended expedition against East Florida, agreeable to the requisition of congress; that a bounty
