H. RIDGELY, cl. sen.”

Ordered to be engrossed.

On motion, the question was put, That £. 4,000 per annum be allowed to the judge of the court of admiralty? Carried in the negative.

The question was then put on £. 3,000 per annum. Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion, RESOLVED, That the clerks of the two houses be allowed each the same per diem allowance, and itinerant charges, for their attendance in time of session, as the members of the general assembly; and a salary each at the rate of £. 2,000 per annum, for their care of the papers belonging to their respective houses, and making up two journals each session, one for the printer and the other to be recorded.

ORDERED, That the clerk provide a record book for the purpose of entering the proceedings.

RESOLVED, That an allowance of £. 1,500 per annum be made to the messenger to the governor and council.

The house adjourns till to morrow morning 9 o'clock.

M O N D A Y, December 27, 1779.

THE house met. Present as on yesterday, except Mr. Craufurd and Mr. Fitzhugh. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The engrossed bill No. 32 read and assented to, and sent to the senate, with the paper bill thereof, by Mr. Jordan and Mr. W. Stevenson.

Mr. William Stevenson brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of certain nonjurors; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion, the question was put, That the following be entered as the order of this house, to wit: That Mr. J. Hall, Mr. Chase, and Mr. Quynn, be appointed to contract for the making seats in the gallery, and for the erecting seats under the gallery, which are to be appropriated for the use of the governor, the members of the senate, and the council, the chancellor, and judges, when they think proper to attend any public debate? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Deye, appeared as follow:
