The house met. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

On progression in reading the bill for raising the supplies for the year seventeen hundred and eighty-one, the question was put, That the following be inserted therein? " And, whereas the houses and lots in the city of Annapolis are not of the value they were in the year seventeen hundred and seventy-four, nor now rent for so much as in that or the preceding years, Be it enacted, That the lots and tenements in the said city may be valued at their real present value, (regard being had to their present rent) not exceeding the value of the like lots or tenements in the year seventeen hundred and seventy-four." The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Chafe, appeared as follow :
