|        |               |          |           |           |               |             |
|--------|---------------|----------|-----------|-----------|---------------|-------------|
| Messrs | Mills,        | Causin,  | Job,      | Chafe,    | T. Johnson,   | Barnes,     |
|        | W. Stevenson, | Hanson,  | Craufurd, | Quynn,    | M'Mechen,     | Cramphin,   |
|        | Wilmer,       | Shaw,    | Magruder, | Morris,   | Jo. Chapline, | Oneale,     |
|        | Maccubbin,    | Whitely, | Clagett,  | Dashiell, | Ja. Chapline, | Hungerford. |
|        | Freeland,     | Lawson,  |           |           |               |             |

So it was determined in the negative.

The fourth amendment was read and agreed to; the fifth amendment was read and rejected.

The question was then put, That the house agree to the sixth amendment? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. M'Comas, appeared as follow:

A F F I R M A T I V E.

|        |               |           |          |         |           |             |
|--------|---------------|-----------|----------|---------|-----------|-------------|
| Messrs | J. Stevenson, | Sulivane, | Taylor,  | Dennis, | Cramphin, | Oneale,     |
|        | Hammond,      | Duckett,  | M'Comas, | Norris, | Bayly,    | Hungerford. |
|        | Hindman,      |           |          |         |           |             |

|        |               |             |          |           |             |               |
|--------|---------------|-------------|----------|-----------|-------------|---------------|
| Messrs | Mills,        | Freeland,   | Shaw,    | Craufurd, | Quynn,      | M'Mechen,     |
|        | Plowden,      | E. Johnson, | Whitely, | Magruder, | Morris,     | Jo. Chapline, |
|        | W. Stevenson, | Causin,     | Lawson,  | Clagett,  | Dashiell,   | Ja. Chapline, |
|        | Wilmer,       | Hanson,     | Job,     | Chafe,    | T. Johnson, | Barnes.       |
|        | Maccubbin,    |             |          |           |             |               |

So it was determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the house agree to the last amendment? Determined in the negative.
