That your committee have also examined the accounts of the dollar tax for the sinking fund, and find there has become due from Thomas Williams, collector of Prince-George's county, on that account, the sum of £. 4080 4 3; that there has been paid by the collectors on said account the sum of £. 2410 0 0, as will appear by the following list:

Thomas Harwood, of Anne-Arundel county, in bills of credit made pursuant to act of congress, 18 March 1780, 18 2 6; Zachariah Forrest, St. Mary's, 187 10 0; William M<sup>c</sup>Laughlin, Baltimore, 2190 15 0; Christopher Edelen, Frederick, 13 12 6. Total 2410 0 0.

And that there still remains due from Thomas Williams, collector of Prince-George's county, the sum of 4080 4 3. And no accounts having been returned by the commissioners of the tax of Frederick county, for first or second payment, Washington, Baltimore, Montgomery, St. Mary's, Harford, Calvert, Anne-Arundel, and Charles counties, for the second payment, and no accounts returned by the commissioners of the several counties for the sinking fund, except Prince-George's county, the arrears cannot at this time be further ascertained.

Your committee have also examined the accounts of the collectors for the several counties with the treasurer of the eastern shore, for the collection of the supplies for the year 1781, and find there has become due from said collectors on that account as follows, viz.
