So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The engrossed bill No. 16, was read and assented to, and sent to the senate, with the paper bill thereof, by Mr. Chew and Mr. Jenifer.

The amendments to the bill relating to nonjurors were read and agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

The engrossed bill No. 15, was read and assented to, and sent to the senate, with the paper bill thereof, by Mr. Burgeis and Mr. Oneale.

On motion, the question was put, That the house concur with the following amendment to the bill to appropriate certain lands to the officers and soldiers of this state, agreed to by the conferees? Viz. In the fifth line of the second page, after the word acre, insert, "And the person who returns a certificate under such warrant shall also pay to the treasurers respectively, within one year from the time of taking out such warrant, four shillings per acre for every acre of vacancy included in such certificate, so that seven shillings and six pence current money per acre be paid to the state, for every acre of vacant land in any manner granted under warrant hereafter to be taken out; and no patent shall be delayed or denied, on account of the second payment aforesaid not being made, but the register aforesaid shall, upon making out every patent including vacant land, endorse the sum due, or to become due, thereon, and shall also deliver and account of the sum due, or to become due, on every patent, and the time when the patent was taken out, to the treasurer of the western shore, to be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and on failure of payment at the day on which the sums due on any patent shall be payable, the treasurer shall and may lodge with the clerk of the general court, or the clerk of any county court where such patentee resides, a particular of the sum due by such patentee, and thereupon such clerk shall issue fieri facias against the lands and tenements, goods and chattels, of such patentee, to raise the money due on such patent, and the lands granted by such patent shall be liable, in whosever hands it may be, to be taken in execution, to satisfy the sum due on such patent." The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. S. Worthington appeared as follow:
