The following messages:

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 30, 1782.

GENTLEMEN,
THERE is some defect in the roof of the stadthouse, which should be immediately repaired, that a building which has cost the state so much money may receive no further injury, and be rendered entirely useless in the course of a few years, if not soon repaired; we therefore request that you will send us a bill applying a sum of money sufficient to answer that purpose.

By order, J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 30, 1782.

GENTLEMEN,
THE length of the session and the season of the year make it highly inconvenient to us, and we presume not less so to you, to continue sitting longer than Saturday next.

We propose therefore adjourning on that day to the first Monday in April next; we shall dispatch and send down to you any business before us, and we request you will send us up such bills as you think absolutely necessary, that if they meet with our concurrence, they may by that time be passed into laws, and receive the seals.

By order, J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

The following resolutions:

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 30, 1782.

RESOLVED, That the intendant lay before the general assembly, this session if in his power, or early in the next, an account sales, and an account current, of all specifics which he has disposed.
