So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, That the said bill do pass? Resolved in the affirmative.

James M'Henry, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker the bill to settle and pay the civil list, endorsed; “ By the senate, January 14, 1783: This bill being returned with a message, was reconsidered and will pass.”
“ By order, J. MACCUBBIN, clk.”

With the following message:

BY THE SENATE, JANUARY 14, 1783.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have reconsidered and sent you the civil list bill with our assent; you have laid us under the disagreeable necessity either of lengthening the session for some days, at a time when every gentleman expects to rise, or assenting to what we do not approve; we must therefore declare to you, that we shall hereafter adhere closely to our propositions, and have only at this time assented to the bill to prevent the further continuance of the session, or the confusion which would arise from leaving the civil officers without any provision.

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

Which was read, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.
And also the engrossed bill No. 27, with the paper bill thereof, which engrossed bill was thus endorsed; “ By the senate, January 14, 1783: Read and assented to.”
“ By order, J. MACCUBBIN, clk.”

Charles Carroll, Barrister, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker the bill to repeal the taxes imposed and appropriated for the redemption of the two emissions of bills of credit, &c. endorsed; “ By the senate, January 11, 1783: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.”

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

“ By the senate, January 14, 1783: Read the second time with the proposed amendments and will pass.”

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.”

Amendments proposed. In the first line of the title of the bill after the word “ taxes” insert “ duties.” In the seventh line from the bottom, in the interlineation, strike out the words “ payable
