The bill to authorise and empower Elizabeth Vallette, Thomas Harwood, and William Brogden, executors of the last will and testament of Elie Vallette, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, to sell and dispose of the real estate of the said Elie Vallette, &c. was read the second time and passed. Sent to the senate by Mr. Quynn and Mr. Stull.

Mr. Griffith has leave of absence.

The message from the senate of Saturday last was read the second time, and the following message prepared in answer thereto :

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, MAY 27, 1783.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

IT is equally our desire to bring the session to a conclusion by Friday next; the advanced season of the year, and the importance of the system of finance proposed by congress in their address and recommendations, render the full discussion thereof, at this time, impracticable, we propose only to take up the duties on trade; we will endeavour to finish the business upon hand by the day proposed by your honours, or at furthest on Saturday. This house have agreed to adjourn till the first Monday in September next.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Mr. Coursey and Mr. Chapline appeared in the house.

On motion, Leave given to bring in a bill to authorise the probate of wills in the orphans courts of the county where the testators die; and Mr. Chase, Mr. Hall, and Mr. Morris, were appointed a committee for that purpose.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

W E D N E S D A Y, May 28, 1783.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Dent, Mr. Miller, Mr. Hindman, and Mr. Ridgely, have leave of absence.

The bill to authorise and empower Charles Greenbury Ridgely, son and heir at law of Charles Greenbury Ridgely, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, jointly with Sarah Ridgely and Henry Ridgely, administrators of the said Charles Greenbury Ridgely, deceased, to sell and dispose of a part of the real estate of the deceased, for the payment of his debts, was read the second time by especial order and passed. Sent to the senate by Mr. N. Worthington and Mr. Brogden.

On the second reading the bill for the enlargement of the market-house in Baltimore-town, the question was put, That the said bill do pass? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Hall appeared as follow :

A F F I R M A T I V E.
