Mr. Oneale, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of captain William Woolsey, beg leave to report, that they perceive by the recitals of the act of assembly made in April session, 1782, that Catherine Woolsey married her husband in Ireland, and was entitled to an estate there in her own right, which was sold for his benefit, on condition that she should have an equivalent settled on her; this not being done, the act passed to sell the real estate and give her one thousand pounds, the remainder to be distributed as in case of intestates estates. That the said William
