The bill to repeal an act proposing to the citizens of this state creditors of congress on loan-office certificates, &c. was read the second time, and the question put, That the said bill do pass? Determined in the negative, and sent to the senate, with the above bills, by Mr. Quynn and Mr. Polk.

RESOLVED, That the late collectors of the tax in the several counties of this state, for the years seventeen hundred and eighty-one and seventeen hundred and eighty-two, be allowed until the first day of June next to complete their collections; and that they be authorized and empowered to collect all arrearages and balances due them on the public taxes by execution or otherwise, in as full and ample manner as they heretofore could have done, had the same been done within the times limited by law.

RESOLVED, That in case any bonds have been put in suit or judgments obtained, process thereon shall be stayed till the said first day of June next.

RESOLVED, That James Horner, late collector of the tax for Harford county, who appears by his petition and oath to have been robbed of the sum of three hundred and twenty-five pounds public money, be allowed until the first day of June next to pay said money.

On motion, the question was put on the following, viz.

Whereas sundry of our citizens who are debtors to, may have just claims against, the state, and it is just and reasonable that in some cases a discount should take place; therefore RESOLVED, That all persons indebted to the state for British and forfeited property sold, who have just claims against this state for certificates granted to them under any act of assembly, or on account for property by them sold the state, or for services by them done, that they shall have credit for the same; and the treasurer is hereby directed to receive in payment from all such debtors any account liquidated and passed by the auditor-general for money due from the state for property by them sold, or services by them done, and also any certificate issued to such debtor, in his or her own name, or in the name of any other person of whom such debtor is devisee or legal representative.
