THE committee, to whom was referred the petition of Elizabeth Willson, beg leave to report, That they have examined the matters set forth in said petition and find them true, and therefore think the petitioner ought to be relieved according to her prayer. All which is submitted to the honourable house.

By order, A. GOLDBER, clk.

Which was read.

Mr. Adams, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the following report:

YOUR committee, to whom was referred the petition of Samuel Trehern, Samuel K. Ham, Ephraim Adams, and Ezekiel Langford, beg leave to report, That they have had the same under their consideration, and do find the facts as stated therein to be true, and are of opinion, that the prayer of the said petitioners (praying a sale of so much of the real estate of the said John Long, as will be sufficient to discharge the judgments obtained against his securities the petitioners) ought to be granted; and that the overplus of the said money arising from the sale of the said real estate, if any, ought to be paid over to the person or persons to whom the said real estate was devised by the said testator, and that the sales of the said real estate ought to be made on a credit of at least six months. All which is submitted to the honourable house.

By order, R. B. LATIMER, clk.

Which was read.

A memorial from the justices and sundry inhabitants of Prince-George's county, praying an act may pass, empowering the justices of the court of the said county to levy a sum of money on the property of said county, for the purpose of employing proper persons to superintend the repairs of the public roads in the said county; was preferred and read.
