Thomas Stone, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker the bill enabling certain persons to take up the vacant land therein mentioned, with the following message:

BY THE SENATE, MARCH 11, 1786.

GENTLEMEN,

WE are really sorry you have rejected our bill enabling certain persons to take up the vacant land therein mentioned, and wish you to reconsider the subject. The price to be paid for the land on the Sugar-loaf mountain, is certainly its worth, the object for which it is desired to be bought ought to be encouraged, and the persons who solicit to be purchasers have a just claim to the attention of the legislature to their reasonable requests.

By order, J. DORSEY, clk.

On motion, the question was put, That the house reconsider the bill enabling certain persons to take up the vacant land therein mentioned? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Oneale appeared as follow :
