Sent to the senate by Mr. Stone.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act respecting surplus lands, was read the second time by special order and passed. Sent to the senate, together with the following resolution, by Mr. J. Bond.

On motion, RESOLVED, That the agent of this state for the recovery of the bank stock, may, with the approbation of his excellency William Smallwood, Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Thomas Johnson, Esquires, or any two of them, compound, settle and agree, with the trustees of the said stock, or any other person or persons concerning the same, on such terms and conditions as they may think for the advantage of the state, on consideration of the situation of the said stock, and the present circumstances of this state, and the benefit that may be derived from a speedy and reasonable compromise, and that the money arising from the stock that will remain in this government, may be laid out in such manner as the said gentlemen, or any two of them, shall think most beneficial to this state.

George Gale and Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquires, from the senate, acquaint Mr. Speaker, that the governor is waiting in the senate to sign and seal the engrossed bills, and requests the attendance of this house for that purpose. Mr. Speaker left the chair, and, attended by the members of this house, went to the senate, and there presented the following engrossed bills to the governor, who signed the same, and affixed the great seal thereto, in the presence of both houses, viz.

- No. 1. An act for quieting the estate of William Carmichael in Rousby's Recovery, and confirming his title to the same.
- No. 2. An act for laying out roads from Snell's bridge and Green's bridge, on Patuxent, to the bridge over Patapsco falls, near Ellicott's lower mills.
- No. 3. An act to make valid the proceedings of the commissioners of the tax for Dorchester county.
- No. 4. An act for the more effectual remedy of extinguishing fire in Baltimore-town.
