So it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion, the question was put, That the delegates to be elected to serve in the proposed convention shall have real and personal property above the value of five hundred pounds current money? Determined in the negative.

On progression in reading the said resolutions, the question was put, That the delegates elected to serve in the proposed convention meet at Annapolis on Monday the twenty-first day of April next? Resolved in the affirmative.

The house having gone through the resolutions, the same were amended and agreed to read as follow:

RESOLVED, That it be recommended to such of the inhabitants of this state as are entitled to vote for delegates in the general assembly, to meet in their respective counties, the city of Annapolis and Baltimore-town, on the first Monday in April next, at the several places fixed by law for holding the annual elections, to choose four persons for each county, two for the city of Annapolis, and two for Baltimore-town, to serve in the state convention, for the purpose of taking under consideration the proposed plan of government for the United States, and that the said elections be conducted agreeably to the mode and conformably with the rules and regulations prescribed for electing members to serve in the house of delegates.

RESOLVED, That the delegates to be elected to serve in the state convention, shall, at the time of election, be citizens of the state, and actually residing therein for three years next preceding the election, residents of the county where they shall be elected twelve months next preceding the election, and be of twenty-one years of age.

RESOLVED, That the persons so elected to serve in the said convention, do assemble on Monday the twenty-first day of April next, at the city of Annapolis, there to take into consideration the aforesaid constitution, and if approved of by them, finally to ratify in behalf and on the part of this state, and make report thereof to the United States in congress assembled.

RESOLVED, That the sheriffs in the respective counties, the mayor, recorder and aldermen, or any three of them, in the city of Annapolis, the commissioners of Baltimore-town, or any three of them, shall and they are hereby required to give immediate notice by advertisements to the people of the counties, city of Annapolis and Baltimore-town, of the time, place and purpose, of the elections as aforesaid.

The engrossed bill No. 1, was read and assented to, and sent to the senate, with the paper bill thereof, by Mr. Digges.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T U E S D A Y, November 27, 1787.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

On motion, the question was put, That the third resolution agreed to on yesterday, and which follows in these words: RESOLVED, That the persons so elected to serve in the said convention, do assemble on Monday the twenty-first day of April next at the city of Annapolis, there to take into consideration the aforesaid constitution, and if approved of by them, finally to ratify in behalf and on the part of this state, and make report thereof to the United States in congress assembled; be reconsidered? Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion, the question was put, That instead of the above resolution the following be substituted, viz. RESOLVED, That the persons so elected to serve in the said convention, do assemble on Monday the twenty-first day of April next at the city of Annapolis, and may adjourn from day to day, as occasion may require, and that the same delegates so assembled, do then and there take into consideration the aforesaid constitution, and if approved of by them, or a majority of them, finally to ratify the same in behalf and on the part of this state, and make report thereof to the United States in congress assembled? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Joshua Seney, appeared as follow:
