BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 6, 1790.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE have rejected the resolution originated in your house in favour of William Moore, because we conceive it to be the exclusive right of the house of delegates to originate all bills or resolutions tending to draw money from the treasury. It is of the utmost importance to preserve and not violate this great right, vested by the constitution in the immediate representatives of the people, and although the present instance is, in itself, of little consequence, we think it incumbent on us to express our disapprobation of the slightest attempt to invade our privilege; we wish to relieve Mr. Moore, and have therefore sent your honours a resolution which will have that effect.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.
