The bill relative to commissions from the court of chancery for examining witnesses and taking depositions, and to authorize the said court to decree a specific performance of agreements in cases therein mentioned, was read the second time, and the question put, That the said bill do pass? Determined in the negative.

Mr. Senev, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the following report:

By the COMMITTEE of ELECTIONS and PRIVILEGES.

THE committee beg leave to report, that it appears by the certificate of the sheriff of Kent, that in virtue of a warrant of election issued by the honourable the speaker, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of Richard Miller, late one of the delegates for said county, he held an election at the usual place, on Thursday the 24th instant, after giving the notice required, and that the polls were kept open until the evening of Monday the 28th, and that John Scott had a majority of votes. The committee observe, that five days elapsed from the commencement to the close of this election, occasioned by the fourth day happening on a Sunday, during which no votes could be taken; but the committee are of opinion that this circumstance does not invalidate the election, and therefore report the said John Scott duly elected and returned a delegate for Kent county.

By order,

A. GOLDER, clk.

Which was read the first and second time, and the question put, That the house concur therewith? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Oneale, appeared as follow:
