So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The clerk of the senate delivers the resolution in favour of Margaret Fisher, endorsed; "By the senate, December 14, 1791: Read the first and second time by especial order and assented to. "By order, H. RIDGELY, c.k."

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T H U R S D A Y, December 15, 1791.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. T. Bond and Mr. Lowes appeared in the house.

Mr. Ridgely, of Wm. from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the speedy recovery of small debts out of court, and to repeal the acts of assembly therein mentioned; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill to incorporate the Queen-Anne's county presbyterian congregation, and to vest in them certain parcels of land, was sent to the senate by the clerk.

Mr. Whitely has leave of absence.

On the second reading the bill respecting the equity jurisdiction of the county courts, the question was put, That the jurisdiction of said courts extend to matters not exceeding £. 500? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. J. P. Marshall, appeared as follow:
