So it was determined in the negative.

The following message being prepared, viz.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 21, 1792.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE have considered your amendments to the bill to regulate the militia, and cannot accede to the amendment proposing an addition of the clauses therewith sent, from No. 1 to 9, nor the alterations proposed in the eleventh page, the amendment A. in the first twelfth, the second amendment in the second 12th page, and in page 15. The residue of your amendments we have agreed to.

We hope that the necessity of enacting a militia law will induce your honours to recede from such of your amendments as this house has rejected.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Was read the first and second time, and the question put, That the house agree thereto? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Ridgely, appeared as follow :

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

RESOLVED, That no execution shall issue on any judgment obtained, or to be obtained, by the state of Maryland against Margaret Myers, until the end of the next November session.

Sent to the senate by the clerk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill for the relief of fundry insolvent debtors, endorsed; "By the senate, December 21, 1792: On reconsideration passed with the proposed amendments.

By order,

H. RIDGELY, clk."

Amendments proposed. In the 3d line from the top of the 1st page, strike out "Gavin Hamilton Smith." In the 8th line from the top of the same page, insert "William Worthington." In the 2d line from the bottom of same page, strike out "Sarah Beall." In the 2d line of the 5th page, between the words "breach" and "from," insert the words "shall be discharged." In the last line of the 4th page, strike out the words "or growing due." In the 4th line of the 5th page, after the word "by," insert "gift." At the end of the bill insert as follows: "And be it enacted, That none of the said debtors, who do not make application as aforesaid on or before the first day of March next, shall have any benefit of this act."

Which were read, agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.
