So it was resolved in the affirmative.

Sent to the senate by the clerk.

The amendment to the bill for altering the times of holding the levy courts in the several counties therein mentioned, was read the second time, agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Earle, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Robert Seney; beg leave to report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and are of opinion that the prayer of the petitioner ought to be granted, upon condition that he deliver to, or leave at the dwelling-house or other place of abode of, such person or persons as are owing for taxes or officers fees, a fair copy of the account of such taxes or officers fees, at least ten days before he shall proceed to execute the property of such person or persons. All which is submitted to the honourable house.

By order, J. O'BRYON, 3d. clk.

Which was read the first and second time, concurred with, and leave given to bring in a bill pursuant thereto. ORDERED, That Mr. Earle, Mr. Kent and Mr. Brown, be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr. J. Johnson brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the collection of the county charges in Allegany county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Hollingsworth brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the weighing of hay and cording of wood in Elkton, Cæcil county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On the second reading the further supplement to an act, entitled, An act to prohibit the bringing slaves into this state, agreeably to the order of the day, the question was put, That the blank in said bill be filled up with three years? Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the words "or by virtue of any writ of execution or attachment," be inserted after the word "intestacy," in the first enacting clause? Determined in the negative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, That the said bill do pass? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Wilson, appeared as follow:
