Mr. Jarrett, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of the poor of Harford county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. J. Johnson, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, An act concerning petitions to the general assembly; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Whereas Christopher Cox, late of Queen-Anne's county, deceased, purchased heretofore part of a tract of land called Partnership, of Walter Dulany, and Mary his wife, and the said estate hath since become the right and property of John Cox, son to the said Christopher, who, upon an ejectment tried at the eastern shore general court in September term, 1794, by the verdict of the jury, lost one hundred and eleven acres and one quarter of an acre, which lay within the bounds of a tract of land called Lillington Castle, claimed by Edward Wright, the defendant in said suit: And whereas it appears that the said Walter Dulany, and Mary his wife, by their deed for the conveying the said land to the said Christopher Cox, did covenant and bind themselves, and their heirs, to warrant the same to him, his heirs and assigns, and the estate of the heir of the said Walter Dulany having been confiscated, and appropriated to the use of the state of Maryland, Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to John Cox, of Queen-Anne's county, the sum of three hundred and sixteen pounds twelve shillings and five-pence halfpenny, in certificates, to be by him issued for that purpose, bearing interest from the date of issuing the same, and receivable for taxes, and in discharge of debts due this state, in full satisfaction and discharge of all claim which the said John Cox hath, or can have, against the state of Maryland, under and in virtue of the said covenant and warranty.
