

due and unpaid to the said Thomas Jones, deceased, for the year seventeen hundred and ninety-five, be committed for amendment.

The bill to enable the court of appeals to continue certain causes, was read the second time, by especial order, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

Petitions from Henry Wilson, junior, and Thomas Cox, of Harford county, and James Labes and John Frederick Amelung, of Frederick county, praying acts of insolvency, were preferred, read, and referred to the committee on petitions of a similar nature.

A petition from James Ayres, of Dorchester county, praying compensation for his services during the late war, and stating, that he was appointed collector of the January tax for Worcester county in the years 1781 and 1782, that he neglected returning his insolvencies to the commissioners of the tax, by which means he has been obliged to pay into the treasury a larger sum than he actually owed, that considerable balances remain due to him as collector, and praying relief, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Frazier, Mr. Ridgely, of William, Mr. Steele, Mr. Lynn, Mr. Parnham and Mr. Corbin, to consider and report thereon.

A petition from Dennis Griffith, of Anne-Arundel county, stating, that he has completed a map of the state, including its several subdivisions; that the loan granted to him by this state was greatly inadequate to the object contemplated, and praying further aid, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Key, Mr. Ridgely, of William, Mr. O'Bryon, Mr. Downes and Mr. Pinkney, to consider and report thereon.

The clerk of the senate delivers a petition from the executors of Benjamin Mackall, of Calvert county, stating, that their father recovered judgment in the general court, May term, 1782, against William and Robert Mollison, merchants, of London, that a house and lot in George-town, the property of the said Mollisons, has since been confiscated and sold for the benefit of the state, which they conceive was answerable for the said judgment, and praying relief, endorsed; "By the senate, November 12, 1795: Read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

"By order,

H. WARFIELD, clk."

Which was read, and referred to Mr. Ridgely, of William, Mr. Winchester and Mr. Key, to consider and report thereon.

The bill to enable the court of appeals to continue certain causes, endorsed; "By the senate, November 12, 1795: Read the first and second time by especial order and will pass.

"By order,

H. WARFIELD, clk."

Ordered to be engrossed.

And a petition from sundry inhabitants of Baltimore-town, praying a charter of incorporation may be granted for the establishment of a bank, endorsed; "By the senate, November 12, 1795: Read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

"By order,

H. WARFIELD, clk."

Which was read, and referred to Mr. Key, Mr. Winchester, Mr. M'Mechen, Mr. Digges and Mr. Pinkney, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Lynn has leave of absence for ten days.

The clerk of the senate delivers a petition from sundry inhabitants of Baltimore-town, and the precincts thereof, praying an act may pass for the extension of Pratt-street, in Baltimore-town, westerly, until the same shall intersect the turnpike road leading from said town to Frederick-town, endorsed; "By the senate, November 12, 1795: Read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

"By order,

H. WARFIELD, clk."

Which was read, and referred to Mr. M'Mechen, Mr. Winchester and Mr. T. Worthington, to consider and report thereon.

A petition from George Wily, of Baltimore-town, praying an act of insolvency, was preferred, read, and referred to the committee on petitions of a similar nature.

Mr. Winchester brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the German reformed congregation in Baltimore-town; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Barroll brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the bill to empower Robert Buchanan, Simon Wilmer, of Edward, and Henry Curry, securities of Thomas Jones, deceased, collector of Kent county, to complete the collection due and unpaid to the said Thomas Jones, deceased, for the year seventeen hundred and ninety-five, as amended; which was read the first and second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the following message:

BY THE SENATE, NOVEMBER 12, 1795.

GENTLEMEN,

THE claim of the state of Maryland to stock in the bank of England appears to us an object of such importance as to merit the immediate attention of the general assembly, we therefore submit to your consideration the propriety of a conference with your house on this subject, and have appointed Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Robert Smith, and William Cooke, Esquires, a committee on the part of the senate, to join such gentlemen as you may be pleased to appoint for that purpose.

By order,

H. WARFIELD, clk.

Which was read.

And the bill for the destruction of crows, endorsed; "By the senate, November 10, 1795: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order,

H. WARFIELD, clk.

"By