Mr. Carroll, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the memorial and petition of the proprietors of the Susquehanna canal, having taken the same, with the attending documents, into consideration, beg leave to report, that the information exhibited has not been sufficiently full and satisfactory to enable them to form a correct judgment on the subjects submitted to their inquiry. They are fully aware of the immense advantages which the state of Maryland must derive from making the river Susquehanna navigable to tide water, but they are ignorant whether this can be accomplished more effectually by completing the canal belonging to the petitioners already begun, or by relieving from obstructions the bed of the river, or whether the public good does not require that the canal and bed should both be made completely navigable. Your committee are of opinion, that the state is bound, both by the principles of policy and equal justice, to assist in a work of so much moment, and that no time should be lost in ascertaining the most effectual and proper form in which a portion of the public money should be devoted to this great object. Your committee having also taken into consideration that part of the company's memorial soliciting a renewal of their charter, are of opinion that no inconvenience can arise from granting the prayer thereof, provided it be done on this condition, that the bed of the river be declared a public highway, to the intent that individuals, or the public, may
