It further appears, by the certificate of the auditor-general, that said Charles Sherburn mustered dead on the twenty-ninth day of September, seventeen hundred and seventy-eight, and that he has never received the depreciation of his pay. From all the circumstances, your committee are of opinion he served as a soldier in said regiment about the term of twelve months. Your committee are further of opinion, that Mary Sherburn, the petitioner, ought to be allowed to receive the depreciation due to said Charles Sherburn; wherefore they submit the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Mary Sherburn the amount of depreciation due Charles Sherburn for twelve months service as a soldier in the first Maryland regiment, the amount of the same to be ascertained by the auditor.
