

shall be sentenced to hard labour, or solitary confinement, or both, for the space of — months or upwards, shall, as soon as possible, at the expence of the state, be safely removed and conveyed by the sheriff of the proper county, under safe and secure conduct, to the gaol and penitentiary-house aforesaid, and therein be kept during the term of his, her or their imprisonment, at hard labour, or solitary confinement, or both, as the case may be, for the remainder part of the time for which by such sentence he or she shall be liable to imprisonment, and be fed, cloathed, treated and dealt with, in the manner herein after mentioned; and every sheriff who shall neglect to remove, and safely deliver at the gaol aforesaid, such convict, within — days after sentence is pronounced on said convict, shall forfeit and pay the sum of — dollars, to be recovered in the court of the county wherein such sheriff shall reside, and applied, one half to the use of the proper county, the other to such person as shall sue for the same.

XIV. And, whereas it is of importance that the nature of the offence, and the former conduct and character of the convict, should be known by the inspectors of said gaol, and their successors in office, Be it enacted, That whensoever any person shall be convicted of any crime, which, by any law or statute in force in this state, prior to the passing of this act, was capital, or a felony of death, or shall be removed from any county to the gaol and penitentiary-house aforesaid, the court before whom such conviction is had, shall, within — days after such offender is removed from the said county, make, and cause to be transmitted to the said inspectors, a report and short account of the circumstances attending the crime committed by such convict, particularly such as tend to aggravate or extenuate the same, and also what character the said convict appeared on the trial to sustain, and whether he had at any time before been convicted of any felony or other infamous crime; which report the said inspectors shall cause to be entered in books or registers to be provided and kept for that purpose.

XV. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of burglary, or as accessory thereto before the fact, shall be sentenced to undergo an imprisonment in the gaol and penitentiary-house aforesaid, for any term of time not less than — years, nor more than — years, and be kept at hard labour and solitary confinement, and be fed, cloathed, treated and dealt with, in manner herein after mentioned.

XVI. And be it enacted, That every person who shall be convicted of the crime of robbery or larceny of any obligation or bond, bill obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note for the payment of money, lottery ticket, paper bill of credit, certificate granted by or under the authority of this state, or of the United States, or of any of the states, shall restore the same so stolen to the right owner or owners thereof, or shall pay him, her or them, the full value