

in the said recited act, shall be entitled to receive two dollars per day for every day they shall attend in the execution of the duties required of them by said act, to be paid by the levy court of Baltimore county, out of the money levied on said county for the support of the criminals adjudged to labour on the turnpike roads. And be it enacted, that the said levy court shall, out of the said funds, allow and pay unto the surveyor and chain-carriers, ax-men and poles-men, to be employed by said commissioners in surveying and marking said road, a reasonable compensation for their services."

4. At the end of the bill add the following clause: "And be it enacted, that any thing in the act to which this is a supplement repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, shall be and the same as hereby repealed."

On the second reading of the amendments to the further supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate elections, the question was put, That the house agree to the first amendment? Determined in the negative.

On progression in reading the said amendments, the question was put, That the house agree to the second amendment? Determined in the negative.

On further progression in reading the said amendments, the question was put, That the house agree to the third amendment? Resolved in the affirmative.

On further progression in reading the said amendments, the question was put, That the house agree to the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh amendments? Determined in the negative.

On further progression in reading the said amendments, the question was put, That the house agree to the eighth and ninth amendments? Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Dashiell, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act to regulate and discipline the militia of this state; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The amendments to the resolution in favour of James B. Sulivane were read the second time and agreed to.

A memorial from John Read Magruder, junior, clerk of Prince-George's county court, praying a revision of the fee bill, was preferred, read, and referred to the committee appointed to bring in a bill to regulate officers fees.

Mr. Dickson, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act to authorise the drawing of certain lotteries within the city of Baltimore; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The following resolution being propounded to the house, was read.

Whereas by an act, entitled, An act to establish a bank, and incorporate the subscribers thereto, passed at November session, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, it is provided, that whenever the state shall become a stockholder to an amount not less than sixty-six thousand dollars, it shall be entitled to appoint two directors, whose election shall be made during the first session of each general assembly; that is to say, one director shall be annually chosen by the senate, and one by the house of delegates, in their respective places of sitting: And whereas the said amount of sixty-six thousand dollars has, by an act passed this present session, entitled, An act for the investment of the unappropriated money in the treasury in the bank of Baltimore, is directed to be subscribed; therefore RESOLVED, by the house of delegates, That — be and he is hereby chosen and appointed, on the part of this house, a director to the bank of Baltimore in behalf of the state, for the ensuing year.

ORDERED, That the said resolution have a second reading on Tuesday next.

Mr. Williams has leave of absence.

On motion, ORDERED, That Mr. Montgomery be added to the committee appointed to bring in a bill to establish a place for holding elections in the third election district in Caroline county, and to repeal an act of assembly therein mentioned.

Mr. Hyland, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of David Sisk, and others, have considered the same, and beg leave to report, that the laws of this state have amply provided a remedy to meet the case, by applying to the courts of justice for redress. They are therefore of opinion that the legislature ought not to interfere.

By order,

D. C. HOPPER, clk.

Which was read the first and second time and concurred with.

Mr. Wilson, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, A further additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act to direct descents; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Rose has leave of absence for a few days.

Mr. P. Stuart, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the memorial of the trustees of Charlotte Hall school report, that from a due consideration of the subject matter thereof, they are of opinion the rapid progress of the seminary, promising advantages which must produce great public utility in the education of youth, merits the peculiar attention of the legislature, and that although legislative patronage has been liberally extended towards that school, together with others, still a further aid would secure a greater good than could have possibly been expected in its institution; and as nothing can tend more to insure good government than preparing proper characters for the arduous and important task of legislation, and that as the mind becomes more enlightened, its strength increased in due proportion towards the protection of human rights, and the aggrandisement of the country of which such shall be the characteristics of her citizens; they would therefore, with such a view of the case, submit to the house