

fifty dollars for his use, and praying an act may pass for the levying of the said sum of money as aforesaid, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Harwood, Mr. Mercer and Mr. Dorsey, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Sheredine, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of sundry inhabitants of Cæcil county, praying that a law may pass for opening a road from Oclorara forge the nearest and best rout to Creswell's ferry, report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and find the number of the petitioners to be small, and few, if any of them, interested in the lands over which said road would necessarily pass, and it does not appear that public notice of their intention to obtain said road has been given previous to their application to this legislature; and as the injury to private property would be great, and the expence to the county considerable, in opening said road, they are therefore of opinion that it is inexpedient at this time to grant the prayer of the petitioners.

By order,

L. GASSAWAY, clk.

Which was read the first and second time and concurred with.

The bill authorising James Summers, late sheriff and collector of Caroline county, to complete his collection, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

Mr. Kershner, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of sundry inhabitants of Washington county, praying that a law may pass authorising the levy court of said county to levy a sum of money sufficient to purchase a lot, or a part of a lot of ground, and build thereon a house for the safe keeping the records and papers of said county, have given the same their serious consideration, and find that timely notice was not given to the inhabitants of their intention aforesaid; the committee are therefore of opinion that the prayer of the petitioners ought not, at this time, to be granted.

By order,

A. GOLDBER, clk.

Which was read the first and second time and concurred with.

The bill to authorise and empower the levy court of Baltimore county to assess and levy a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.
