The following message being prepared, was read, agreed to, and sent to the senate, with the bill empowering the chancellor to direct a sale of the real estate of Richard Jacob Duckett, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, for the purposes therein mentioned, by the clerk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 3, 1804.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE have received, with your dissent, the bill, entitled, An act empowering the chancellor to direct a sale of the real estate of Richard Jacob Duckett, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, for the purposes therein mentioned, which bill we hope, upon further reflection, will meet with your approbation. The ancestor of those who are immediately interested in the object of the present bill, died possessed of a certain property, which at present is valuable, but which, before those entitled to it arrive to age, may be of little value.
