Which amendments were read.

And the bill, entitled, An act to establish a bank, and incorporate a company, under the name of The Farmers Bank of Maryland, and for other purposes, with the following message:

BY THE SENATE, JANUARY 5, 1805.

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

YOUR message of the 24th ultimo, together with the bill, entitled, An act to establish a bank, and incorporate a company, under the name of The Farmers Bank of Maryland, and for other purposes, has been received, in which you request a reconsideration of the 13th amendment proposed by the senate to that bill. The subject has been taken into consideration, and a general resolution with respect to banks having this day passed the legislature, calculated to obviate those evils the amendment was intended to prevent, we deem the amendment proposed unnecessary, and have therefore, on reconsideration, receded from the same. It therefore supersedes the necessity of the conference proposed by you.

By order,

T. W. HALL, clk.

Which message was read.

Ordered that the last mentioned bill be engrossed.

The house adjourns until Monday morning 9 o'clock.
