

If you should be of opinion with us, as to the preference of taking the bonds by the justices of the orphans court, we beg leave to suggest, that an amendment proposed by you, giving them the exclusive power, would pass this house, rather than the present inconveniencies should be longer submitted to. We therefore solicit a reconsideration of the subject, in expectation that our wishes may be gratified in the passage of the bill, either without insisting on your amendment, or with such a modification as we have suggested.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

The following message was read.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 5, 1806.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

BELIEVING it to be expedient that the several parts of the constitution of this state should be collected into one body, and brought into one entire view, and hoping it may meet with your approbation, we have therefore thought proper to appoint Mr. —, Mr. — and Mr. —, to join such gentlemen as may be named by you, to compose a joint committee for that purpose.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

The house proceeded to ballot for a committee agreeably to said message ; the ballots being deposited in the ballot box, the gentlemen named to strike retired, and after sometime returned and reported, that Mr. Chapman, Mr. Shaaff and Mr. Sudler, were elected.
