

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, NOVEMBER SESSION, 1806.

The bill to restrain the evil practices arising from free negroes keeping dogs, and to prohibit them from carrying guns or offensive weapons, was read the second time, and, on motion, the question put, That the following be added to the said bill? to wit: "And be it enacted, That this act shall have no operation or effect in Allegany county." Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass? Resolved in the affirmative; which was sent to the senate by the clerk:

A memorial from the presidents of the different banks in Maryland, praying that forgeries may be punished with death, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Muir, Mr. Shaaff, Mr. Aisquith, Mr. Carroll and Mr. Brace, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Harryman, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act to lay out and open a public road in the direction herein after mentioned in Baltimore county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Aisquith, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to authorise a lottery or lotteries to raise a sum of money for the improvement of the navigation of the river Susquehanna; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The house proceeded to the second reading by especial order of the bill to tax bank stock; on motion, the question was put, That the further consideration of the same be referred to the first day of June next? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

Mr. Little, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the memorial of Jubb Fowler, messenger to the executive of Maryland, report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and from his advanced age and long services to the state, they are of opinion his salary ought to be enhanced; they therefore beg leave to submit the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore, be and he is hereby authorised and required to pay unto Jubb Fowler, messenger to the executive, in addition to his present salary, the sum of one hundred dollars annually, in quarterly payments, during his continuance in office.

All which is submitted.

By order,

J. S. SKINNER, clk.

Which was read.

Mr. W. H. Brown, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Cornelius Manning report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and find, that the petitioner's father had, on the thirtieth day of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-six, paid into the treasury the full amount of the purchase money for the land by him bought of the state, agreeable to the tenor of the bond given to the state; they further report, that from the several documents to them submitted, they find that the said Robert Manning has paid into the treasury the sum of one hundred and fifty-four pounds four shillings and ten pence halfpenny current money, for which he has received no value, there being a deficiency in the land purchased of the state to that amount; they therefore submit the following resolution to the consideration of the house:

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Cornelius Manning, or his order, the sum of one hundred and fifty-four pounds four shillings and ten pence halfpenny current money, it being the amount of the deficiency in the purchase made by the said Manning's father of this state.

Which was read.

Mr. Bruce, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to reduce into one the several acts of assembly respecting elections, and to regulate said elections; which was read the first and second time by especial order and passed.

The speaker laid before the house a report of the examiner general for the western shore; which was read.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill to compel justices of the peace to return all recognizances taken before them, endorsed "will not pass." The bill to continue certain acts of assembly, and the bill to lay out and open an old road in Harford county, severally endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Jackson, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee appointed to examine the situation of the government-house, and the furniture necessary for the accommodation of the governor, report, that they have examined the same, and are of opinion that an appropriation of one thousand dollars is absolutely necessary for the repairs of the government property, and the
