

The following resolution was read the first and second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

RESOLVED, That so much of the resolution which passed during the present session of assembly, appropriating money for repairing and furnishing the government-house, as relates to furnishing the same, be and the same is hereby rescinded.

The engrossed bills from No. 62 to 89, inclusive, were read and assented to, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

On motion, the question was put, That the house dispense with the 16th rule thereof? The house being equally divided, it was declared in the affirmative by the speaker.

The house proceeded to the second reading of the resolution relative to the chief judge of the sixth judicial district, and the question put, That the words "filth and" be inserted between the words "the" and "sixth?" Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the words "third and" be inserted in the same place? Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the said resolution be referred to the next general assembly? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

A F F I R M A T I V E.

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the blank therein be filled up with the words "sixteen hundred?" Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the house assent to the said resolution? Resolved in the affirmative; which was sent to the senate by the clerk.

The following message was read, agreed to, and, with the bill relating thereto, sent to the senate by the clerk.
By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, January 4, 1807.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE find that the senate have negatived the bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors. By the provisions of the original law many persons will be deprived of the benefit of it, unless some change takes place.

We have therefore returned the bill for your reconsideration, and hope that you may finally pass it.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the journal of accounts, endorsed "assented to;" and the bill for the payment of the same, endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. Also the resolution directing desks for the house of delegates, endorsed "assented to." The resolution rescinding the resolution relative to the government-house, endorsed "dissented from." And the bill to ascertain and establish a permanent salary to the governor of this state, endorsed "will not pass." Also the following message:

By the SENATE, January 4, 1807.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE have received your message, informing us you have finished the business before you. We have nothing on our table to be acted on, but we would suggest the necessity of making, before we close the session, some
