The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

S A T U R D A Y, November 28, 1807.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The speaker laid before the house the return of the judges of the election for Washington county; which was read and referred to the committee appointed to examine said returns.

Mr. William Gabby, a delegate returned from Washington county, appeared, and after qualifying in the mode prescribed by the constitution and form of government, and taking the oath to support the constitution of the United States, took his seat in the house.

The bill to make valid a deed from Isaac Dixon to John Dashiell for part of a tract of land called Dixon's Green, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

The bill to incorporate the stockholders of the Hagar's-town Bank, was sent to the senate by the clerk.

A memorial from Ignatius Middleton, of Charles county, counter to the memorial of sundry inhabitants of said county, was preferred, read, and referred to the committee appointed on the memorial to which it is counter.

A petition from the lutheran and presbyterian congregations, praying to be authorised to sell a parcel of land for the benefit thereof, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Tabbs, Mr. Bowles and Mr. Schnebly, to consider and report thereon.

The bill for the benefit of the vestry of the German evangelic lutheran congregation in and about Elizabethtown, at Saint-John's church, in Washington county, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

A petition from sundry inhabitants of Harford county, praying the road from the county road leading to Charles Rigdon's mill may be declared a public highway, and commissioners appointed to streighten the same to the Quaker Bottom, until it intersects the road to Smith's ferry on Susquehanna, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Davis, Mr. Streett and Mr. Ayres, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. W. H. Brown, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act relating to negroes; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On the second reading of the supplement to the act, entitled, An act to prevent free negroes from selling any corn, wheat or tobacco, without having a license for that purpose from a justice of the peace, the question was put, That the further consideration of the same be postponed until the first day of August next? Determined in the negative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, Shall the said bill pass? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
