

A petition from sundry inhabitants of Frederick county, praying for a road, to commence at the road passing near Apple's Church through Smith's Gap in the South Mountain, from thence by a large spring near said church, thence through Casper Young's and George Seis's plantations to the north end of a line of the land called The Resurvey on Content, and with it to the great road leading from Hagar's town to Baltimore, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Kuhn, Mr. Shriver and Mr. Biggs, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Shaaff, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the memorial of Jeremiah Townley Chase, chief judge of the third judicial district, report, that they have taken the same under consideration, and are of opinion that the application of the memorialist is reasonable, and ought to be granted.

The committee further report, that an act passed the last session of assembly, entitled, An act concerning the chancery court, by which certain chancery duties were imposed upon the chief judge of the third judicial district, or the court thereof, at the election of the complainant, and by the said law the chancellor is authorised to require the opinion of the said judge on any question of law which may arise in chancery, and in which, according to the usual practice, such opinion may be thought necessary; these duties are, in the opinion of the committee, in no manner connected with the office of the memorialist, and ought not to be required of him without an adequate compensation, and no compensation has yet been made by the legislature. The committee, for these reasons, think that the following resolution ought to be adopted by the house.

Whereas certain duties are imposed upon the chief judge of the third judicial district, by an act passed at the last session of assembly, entitled, An act concerning the chancery court, which duties are wholly unconnected with the office of the said judge, and it being proper to make compensation for the said service; therefore RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay annually to Jeremiah Townley Chase, chief judge of the third judicial district, or to his order, the sum of _____ dollars, to be paid quarterly, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

All which is submitted.

By order,

D. L. JACOB, clk.

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion, ORDERED, That the said bill be recommitted for amendment.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay unto Thomas Meredith, devisee of Benjamin Meredith, deceased, or his order, the sum of three pounds seventeen shillings and six-pence current money of Maryland, with interest thereon from the seventeenth day of September, seventeen hundred and eighty five.
