Mr. T. Moffit, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Letitia Crookshanks, the widow of John Crookshanks, late of Cecil county, deceased, one of the securities of Patrick Hamilton, late sheriff and collector of Cecil county, beg leave to report, that they have taken the petitioner's case into their serious consideration, and are of opinion she is entitled to the relief prayed for; they therefore recommend the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That all proceedings against Letitia Crookshanks, and her securities, on a judgment obtained against them at the suit of the state, be stayed, and the bond given up to them, upon their paying all costs of suit incurred in obtaining said judgment.

By order,

G. WINCHESTER, clk.

Which was read.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill for the relief of Mary Gwinn, of Frederick county, with the following message:

By the S E N A T E, December 11, 1807.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE have received your message of the 7th inst. accompanied by a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Mary Gwinn, of Frederick county, desiring a reconsideration of the amendments made by the senate. We assure you that the senate did not act on the bill without due deliberation, therefore decline receding therefrom.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

Which was read.

Also the bill authorising Alexis Boone, late sheriff of Prince-George's county, to complete his collection, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendment;" which amendment was read.
