	Reynolds,	Winder,	Porter,	Hawkins,	Bayard,	Bowles,	Bruce,	31.

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

On further progression, the question was put, That the following be inserted in the third clause, after the word "bugler?" viz. "and that to each division there shall be one major-general, and aid-de-camps with the rank of major, to each brigade one brigadier-general, with one brigade inspector, to serve also as a brigade major, with the rank of a major, to each regiment one lieutenant-colonel commandant, and to each battalion one major, to each company one captain, one lieutenant, one ensign, and noncommissioned officers as above directed; that there shall be a regimental staff, to consist of one adjutant and one quartermaster, to rank as lieutenants, one paymaster, one surgeon and one surgeon's mate, one sergeant-major, one drum-major, and one fife-major." Determined in the negative.

On motion, That the following words be stricken out of the fourth clause? viz. "and each noncommissioned officer and private enrolled, notified thereof, and liable to militia duty as aforesaid, shall, within twelve months thereafter, arm and equip himself in the manner directed by the said act of congress, under the penalty of a sum not exceeding five dollars, nor less than one dollar, at the discretion of a company court-martial, and of a further sum of three dollars for every year he shall continue such neglect to arm and equip himself as aforesaid, except such noncommissioned officers and privates as shall be adjudged by a company court-martial to be too indigent to bear the expense of such armament and equipment;" the question was put, That the house adjourn? Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the said words be stricken out? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
