

Mr. Hall, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Notley Maddox, sheriff of Prince-George's county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On the second reading of the bill to enable Margaret Hammond and Harriet Hammond, of Baltimore county, to erect a bridge across Patapsco river at a place called Hammond's Ferry, the question was put, That the same be recommitted for amendment? Resolved in the affirmative.

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

W E D N E S D A Y, December 30, 1807.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

A petition from sundry inhabitants of Baltimore county, counter to the petition for the extension of the Falls turnpike, was preferred, read, and referred to the committee appointed on the petition to which it is counter.

A petition from sundry inhabitants of Fells-Point, praying a road from Bond-street to intersect the York turnpike road, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Steuart, Mr. T. Dorsey and Mr. Harryman, to consider and report thereon.

A petition from sundry inhabitants of Dorchester county, praying that a law may pass to prevent wears and hedges from being placed in the channel of Nanticoke river, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Dennis, Mr. Henry and Mr. Frazier, to consider and report thereon.

The following resolution was read.

RESOLVED, That the executive of Maryland be requested to take immediate and effectual measures to collect all the arms belonging to the state, except such as have been delivered out to the volunteer corps recently organized.

Mr. Forwood, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act annulling the marriage of John M'Candless and Sarah M'Candless his wife; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Streett, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act to lay out and make public an old road in Harford county, and Mr. T. Moffit, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act authorising Nathaniel Oldham, Absalom Oldham and James Cockran, to complete their collections; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The house, according to the order of the day, resumed the consideration of the bill to regulate and discipline the militia of this state, and the question was put, That the following be inserted in lieu of the words heretofore stricken out? "and each noncommissioned officer and private enrolled, notified thereof, and liable to militia duty as aforesaid, shall, within twelve months thereafter, arm himself with a good serviceable firelock, under the penalty of a sum not exceeding five dollars, nor less than one dollar, at the discretion of a company court-martial, and of a further sum of three dollars for every year he shall continue such neglect to arm himself as aforesaid, except such noncommissioned officers and privates as shall be adjudged, by a company court-martial, to be too indigent to bear the expense of purchasing such arms." The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
