

The bill to fix and establish the pay of the adjutant-general and brigade inspectors, the bill authorising the levy court of Washington county to appoint commissioners to review the road therein mentioned, the bill to provide for the transcribing of certain land records in Prince-George's county, and for making out an alphabet to the same, the bill for the preservation of the navigation of the north-west branch of Nanticoke river, in Dorchester county, the bill for the preservation of the navigation of Cabin creek, in Dorchester county, the bill authorising the court of chancery to decree in the case therein mentioned, the resolution in favour of the examiner-general, and the resolution relative to the militia law, were sent to the senate by the clerk.

The report of the committee on the petition of Bennett Hamilton and Charles Sewell, was read the second time, and the question put, That the following words be stricken out of the resolution therein contained? "and that they the said Bennett Hamilton and Charles Sewell, be and they are hereby empowered and permitted to take out an execution or executions for the sum of money already by them paid, in the same manner that they might or could have done if they had paid the whole of the debt to the said state against the said Charles Mankin, and the other securities of the said Charles Mankin." Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the house concur with the said report, and assent to the resolution therein contained? Resolved in the affirmative.

The house resumed the consideration of the bill to prevent for a limited time the sale of lands or tenements, goods or chattels, on writs of execution, and for other purposes therein mentioned; which being read through out, the question was put, Shall the said bill pass? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

On the second reading of the bill for the benefit of the representatives of Josiah P. Proctor, of Baltimore county, deceased, the question was put, That the further consideration of the same be referred to the next general assembly? Resolved in the affirmative.

The following resolution was read.

RESOLVED, That the chancellor be and he is hereby authorised to consider and decree upon the claim of John Smith Brooks, for payment of a depreciation certificate issued by Christopher Richmond, late auditor of the state, to George Wilson, late a soldier in the — regiment of the Maryland line, on the seventeenth day of June, seventeen hundred and eighty-four, which said certificate is alleged by the state to have been fraudulently obtained; and that the attorney-general be called upon by the chancellor to attend at the hearing of said case, then and there to shew cause, if any he may have, why the state should not pay to the said John Smith Brooks, bearer and owner of said certificate, the amount of principal and interest of said certificate; and should the decree of the chancellor be in favour of the said John Smith Brooks, that then and in such case the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorised to receive the said certificate, and to apply the same, principal and interest, to the credit of the said John Smith Brooks on his bond in the treasury.

The house, according to the order of the day, proceeded to the second reading of the further additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act to erect Baltimore-town, in Baltimore county, into a city, and to incorporate the inhabitants thereof; which being read throughout, the question was put, Shall the said bill pass? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
