On further progression, the question was put, That the following be inserted after the thirteenth clause? viz. "And be it enacted, That if any person or persons against whom a judgment has or may hereafter be rendered in any court of law, or any person or persons against whom any decree in chancery has been or may be hereafter obtained, or any person or persons against whom a judgment has or may hereafter be obtained before any justice of the peace, shall not, within ten days after the rendition of such judgment, or obtaining of such decree, supersede the same, as by this act is contemplated and directed, that then the creditor or creditors, their executors or administrators, may take out a writ of fieri facias, and cause the same to be levied by the sheriff, (or other legal officer to whom such writ of execution may be directed,) on any of the goods, chattels, lands or tenements, of such person or persons, and thereupon the sheriff, or other proper officer to whom the writ aforesaid was directed, shall proceed to advertise and sell such goods and chattels, lands or tenements, thus levied on, at a price not less than the valuation, to be ascertained by three respectable appraisers, to be selected by the sheriff, or other proper officer, and duly sworn for that purpose." So it was determined in the negative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, That the house reconsider the preamble thereof? Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass? Resolved in the affirmative.

The speaker laid before the house a letter from the clerk of the council, stating that he had procured and had bound the several acts of congress, agreeably to the order of this house, passed last session; which was read.

Mr. Seth, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act relating to the public roads of Talbot county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

A petition from Ariana French, of George-town, praying that the title of the state to certain property therein mentioned may be released to her, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. J. H. Thomas, Mr. Spencer and Mr. Dorsey, to consider and report thereon.
