FIVE O'CLOCK, P. M.

THE house met.

Mr. J. H. Thomas, from the committee appointed to inquire into the expenses incurred by the governor and council in fitting up the house of delegates room, delivers to the speaker a report; which was read.

The following order was read and agreed to.

ORDERED, That the report of the committee appointed to inquire into the expenses incurred by the governor and council in fitting up the house of delegates room under a resolution of November session, 1806, together with the accounts, documents and depositions therewith exhibited, be entered at length on the votes and proceedings of this house, and that the usual number of copies of the said report, accounts, documents and depositions, be printed for the use of the members.

THE committee appointed to inquire into the expenses incurred by the Governor and Council in fitting up the House of Delegates Room, under the Resolution of November session, 1806, beg leave to report, That in entering upon the duties assigned to them by the order of the house, a letter was addressed by the chairman of the committee to the governor and council, notifying them that the committee were ready to proceed in their inquiry, and to receive any statement or information which the executive might be disposed to lay before them: That in answer to this letter, the chairman received from the clerk of the council an order of the board, directing the clerk to deliver to the chairman of the committee any papers that might be required: That upon an application being thereupon made for all the documents and papers which might relate to the subject, the clerk of the council delivered to the chairman of the committee certain accounts, letters and vouchers, attested copies of which will be found among the papers herewith exhibited, marked from No. 1 to No. 8 inclusive. That among the said papers will be found a copy (marked No. 4.) of the letter from William Tuck to the governor and council, referred to in said Tuck's deposition; which paper having been mentioned by William Tuck in his examination before the committee, their chairman applied to the clerk of the council and was furnished by him with the original letter.

Your committee also beg leave to exhibit to the house the letter, (marked No. 9.) from Benjamin Harwood, Esquire, treasurer, enclosing a statement of the several sums paid by him to the Messrs. Tucks, in virtue of sundry draughts drawn in their favour by the executive, together with certified copies of the said draughts.
