

8 VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, JUNE SESSION, 1809.

was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Beall, Mr. Herbert and Mr. Chapman, to consider and report thereon.

The following message was read.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, June 7, 1809.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE propose to go into the appointment of a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States during the constitutional period. As there is no mode pointed out by the constitution, or no legislative provision on the subject, by which the appointment is to be conducted, we propose, with the concurrence of your house, a conference, by joint committee of the two houses. ——— are named by this house to meet such gentlemen as may be named by you to confer on the subject, and report the result of such conference to their respective houses.

And, on motion, the question was put, That the words "as there is no mode pointed out by the constitution, or no legislative provision on the subject, by which the appointment is to be conducted," be stricken out? Determined in the negative.

On motion, the question was put, That the further consideration of the same be postponed? Determined in the negative.

The house proceeded to ballot for the committee mentioned in said message; the ballots being deposited in the ballot box, the gentlemen named to strike retired, and after sometime returned and reported, that Mr. Edmondson, Mr. J. Thomas, Mr. Hilleary, Mr. Young and Mr. Herbert, were elected.

The message being read throughout, the question was put, That the house assent to the same? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
