

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, JUNE SESSION, 1809.

Also the resolutions relative to repairing the armory at Frederick-town and the armory at Easton, severally endorsed, "dissented from."

The following resolution was read.

RESOLVED, That the four thousand stand of arms, and the horsemen's swords and pistols, directed to be purchased by the legislature of this state at their last session, and subject to the order of the executive, shall be deposited in such convenient and secure place, as, in the opinion of the executive, shall be judged proper, and distributed by them among the militia only when called into actual service; and that the executive shall cause the said arms to be insured against loss by fire, and that they shall draw upon the treasury from time to time for such sum of money as shall be sufficient to defray the expense of storage and insurance.

A petition from Mary Lomax, of Virginia, praying that a sum of money may be levied on Washington county to pay her for a negro sold by the sheriff of said county as a runaway, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Downey, Mr. Bowles and Mr. Chapman, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Downey, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act to authorise the levy court of Washington county to levy a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned; which was read the first and second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

The engrossed bills from No. 1 to No. 14, inclusive, were read, assented to, and sent to the senate by the clerk. The resolution in favour of Frederick Green, John Brewer and Thomas Rogers, was read the second time, and the question was put, That the first blank be filled up with the words "two hundred dollars?" Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the second blank be filled up with the words "one hundred dollars?" Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the third blank be filled up with the words "fifty dollars?" Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the following be added to the said resolution? "also the sum of twenty dollars to the Rev. Mr. Wyatt for attending as our chaplain during the present session of the legislature." Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the house assent to the same? Resolved in the affirmative, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

The following message was read.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, June 9, 1809.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE accede to your proposition of 6th instant, and are ready to proceed, by joint ballot, to the election of a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States for the constitutional period. We therefore request your concurrence with the following resolution, adopted by us.

RESOLVED, That Saturday, the 10th instant, be appointed to choose one senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States, to be resident on the western shore, and that the person on the said shore having a majority of votes of all the attending members of both houses, be declared duly elected to represent this state in the senate of the United States until the 4th day of March, eighteen hundred and fifteen; and that a commission issue to the said senator, appointed as aforesaid, signed by the governor for the time being, or in his absence by the presiding member of the council, in the following words, to wit: The Legislature of Maryland, reposing especial confidence in your integrity and abilities, hath appointed you Senator, to represent this state in the senate of the United States until the fourth of March, eighteen hundred and fifteen, agreeably to the constitution of the United States. Given under my hand, and seal of this state, Anno Domini _____.

And the question put, That the house agree to the same? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
