

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Valentine Ebert, of Frederick county, report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and are of opinion that the prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted, and that he have leave to withdraw his petition.

By order,

L. C. GASSAWAY, clk.

Which was read the first and second time by especial order and concurred with.

Mr. Williams delivers a bill, entitled, An act for the support of Azariah, Philip and Ninian Riggs, of Anne-Arundel county; which was read the first and second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the senate.

Mr. Schley delivers a bill, entitled, An act to lay out and open a road in Frederick county; and Mr. Streett delivers a bill, entitled, An act to repeal the ninth section of an act to prevent evils arising from the entering up judgments upon bonds, commonly called Judgment Bonds, to direct the manner of issuing executions on loan-office bonds, and to regulate certain fees therein mentioned; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion by Mr. Palmer, the following message was read, agreed to, and with the bill therein mentioned, sent to the senate.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 22, 1809.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

A Bill, entitled, An act annulling the marriage of Amelia Peters, of Queen-Anne's county, as passed by this house, has been negatived by your body. It is one of those imperious cases to which we request the reconsideration of the senate.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Mr. Baer delivers a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of the German or High Dutch Reformed Christian Church in Frederick-town, and other persons therein named; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. J. E. Spencer delivers a petition from Thomas Gadd, an old soldier; which was read and referred to the committee appointed on petitions of a similar nature.

Mr. A. Dorsey delivers a bill, entitled, An act to alter and abolish all that part of the constitution which permits certain citizens of Annapolis to vote for delegates for Anne-Arundel county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Worthington delivers a petition from Doctor James Smith, of the city of Baltimore, praying the attention of the legislature towards the distribution of the vaccine matter; which was read and referred to Mr. Worthington, Mr. Davis, Mr. Winder, Mr. Veazey and Mr. Plater, to consider and report thereon.

The house proceeded to the second reading of the bill for the maintenance and education of Edward Spurrier, of Anne-Arundel county, and, on motion by Mr. Chapman, the question was put, That the words "and Thomas Stone, son of the late deceased General John Hoskins Stone," be inserted in the title after the words "Anne-Arundel county?" Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
