On motion by Mr. T. Hall, the following resolution was read, agreed to, and sent to the senate:

Whereas it appears to this general assembly, that Mountjoy Bayly, a captain in the late revolutionary war, and who served to its termination, did not receive the commutation money of five years pay, in lieu of the half pay for life promised to the officers and soldiers who continued in service to the end of the war; therefore, RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorised and directed to pay to the said Mountjoy Bayly, five years full pay as a captain, free from interest, as a full compensation for his services during the late revolutionary war.

On motion by Mr. Bowles, the following message was read, agreed to, and sent to the senate.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 29, 1810.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE have received your message on the subject of your dissent to the resolution passed this house in favour of Mountjoy Bayly, an old revolutionary officer, and have originated and passed another resolution in his favour, in conformity to your message, and hope it will meet with your concurrence.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

On motion by Mr. Archer, the following order was read and assented to.

ORDERED, That the speaker issue subpoenas for William H. Winder, Robert G. Harper and Walter Dorsey, to give testimony on the part of this house against Zebulon Hollingsworth and Thomas Jones, Esquires, which subpoenas shall be made returnable on the tenth day of December next.

The house resumed the consideration of the bill for the valuation of real and personal property in this state, and on motion by Mr. Comegys, the question was put, That the words "remaining commissioners," be stricken out of the sixth clause, which provides for filling up vacancies, for the purpose of inserting the words, "levy court." The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
