

By Mr. Comegys, An act for the revaluation of the real and personal property in Kent county.

Which said bills were severally read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. M'Mahon, chairman of the committee to whom was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act against excessive usury, reported verbally, that the said committee, having considered said bill, were of opinion it ought to pass without amendment.

The said bill was then read the first time, ordered to lie on the table, and, on motion by Mr. M'Mahon, made the order of the day for Monday next, the eleventh instant.

On motion by Mr. Steuart, of Baltimore, the house proceeded to consider the amendments proposed by the senate to the resolution respecting the claims of the surviving officers and soldiers of the revolution, and the same having been read the second time, they were severally assented to; and the resolution was thereupon ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Gantt, chairman of the committee to whom was re-committed, on the second instant, for the purpose of amendment, the bill that had been reported by him, entitled, An act relative to the inspection of tobacco, reported verbally, that the said committee, having considered and amended said bill, were of opinion the same ought to pass with the amendments ingrafted therein by the committee.

The said bill, so amended, was then read the first time, ordered to lie on the table, and be reprinted.

Mr. Donoho, chairman of the committee to whom was yesterday re-committed for the purpose of amendment, the bill that had been reported by him, entitled, An act to repeal part of an act of assembly therein mentioned, reported verbally, that the said committee, having considered and amended said bill, were of opinion, the same ought to pass with the amendment ingrafted therein by the committee.

The said bill, so amended, was then read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

The unfinished business of yesterday in reference to the bill reported by Mr. Thomas of Cecil, entitled, An act to relieve the Baltimore and Havre-de-Grace Turnpike Company from paying the levy court of Harford county for a county road, which had been made the order of that day, was taken up for consideration; and in the progress of the second reading of said bill,

Mr. Hope moved to amend the first section thereof, by adding the following proviso at the end of said section, viz. "provided, that said company will not put any gate or gates on the bed of the old road leading from Bush to Port Deposit."

Mr. Thomas, of Cecil, moved to add at the end of the
