

THURSDAY, March 6, 1828.

The house met. Were present the same members as on yesterday. After the clerk had made some progress in the reading of the proceedings of yesterday,

On motion by Mr. Sellman, the further reading thereof was dispensed with.

The several bills and resolutions, and also the report and resolution of the following titles, were sent to the senate for concurrence, to wit:

Those passed by this house yesterday.

An act to incorporate a company in the city of Baltimore, to be called The Mechanical Fire Company.

A resolution allowing the chancellor and the treasurer for the western shore, the same access to, and use of, the library established for the use of the legislature, as the members thereof, and authorising the delivery to said treasurer, for the use of his office, copies of certain books therein mentioned.

A resolution authorising a grant to the heirs of Andrew Lord, who was a soldier in the Maryland line during the revolutionary war, of fifty acres of vacant land westward of Fort Cumberland, in Allegany county.

A resolution concerning Aaron Crawford, of Washington county.

A resolution for the suspension of proceedings on certain judgments obtained by the state against Charles Jones, late sheriff and collector of Somerset county, and his securities.

A resolution suspending proceedings on a judgment obtained by the state of Maryland against Roger Hooper, late of Dorchester county, deceased.

A resolution suspending proceedings on judgments obtained by the state against the securities of the administratrix of William H. Nicholson, late of Queen-Anne's county. And

A report and resolution relative to a communication of the governor of Virginia, enclosing a law passed by the legislature of that state providing for the erection of a toll bridge across the river Potomac, at or near Shepherd's town.

And those passed by this house yesterday, during the evening session:

An act to authorise Avra Melvin, of Worcester county, to remove certain negro slaves from the state of Virginia to this state.

An act to authorise and empower Richard Ireland Jones, of the city of Annapolis, to remove certain negroes from the state of Kentucky into this state.

An act for the relief of Margaret Yingling, of Frederick county.