

cannot think it wise or expedient to borrow money to meet the ordinary expenses of government.

By order,

G. Pearce, Clk.

Which was twice read. When,

Mr. Thomas, of Frederick, proposed to amend the same, by the insertion, (after the words, "which would justify its rejection," in the eighth line thereof,) of the following words, viz. "except the seventeenth amendment, recommended by the committee of conference."

Mr. Thomas, of Cecil, moved, that the further consideration of the proposed message and amendment be referred to the next general assembly of Maryland? And the question, thereon, being taken, was determined in the negative. Yeas 16—Nays 38.

The yeas and nays, being required by seven members, were taken, and appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Price	Mercer
