So it was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Stevens moved to strike out from said bill the words, "the Adjutant General."

And the question thereon being taken, it was decided in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Watkins, "the sum of five hundred dollars," was then inserted as the salary of the Adjutant General.

On motion by Mr. Watkins, the sum of "one hundred and fifty dollars," was inserted as the salary of the clerk of the senate.

Mr. Watkins moved, "that the sum of four hundred dollars be inserted as the salary of the clerk of the house of delegates."

Mr. Douglas of Dorchester, moved that the blank be filled with "three hundred dollars."

And the question being taken on the motion of Mr. Watkins to fill up the blank with "the sum of four hundred dollars," it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Watkins, "the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars," was inserted as the salary of the messenger to the executive council.

Mr. M'Neill then proposed to amend the bill by inserting
