So it was determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Watkins, the house then resumed the consideration of the resolution submitted by him as above, relative to the payment of the members of the general assembly, and the officers thereof, and the electors of president and vice president of the United States, their clerk and officers, on certificates obtained from the chairman of the committee on claims; and the same having been again read, the question was put. Will the house assent thereto?—It was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Done appeared in the house.

The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.

SATURDAY, January 3, 1829.

The house met. Were present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

On motion by Mr. Lee, it was Ordered, That the chief clerk do prepare the Journal of the Proceedings of the House of Delegates under the immediate supervision of the speaker.

The resolution, passed by this house yesterday, providing for the payment of the members and officers of the present general assembly, and the electors of president and vice-president of the United States, and their officers, was sent to the senate for concurrence.

The clerk of the senate delivered the following communication, referred by that body to the consideration of this house, viz.

Executive Department,
Annapolis, January 3d, 1829.

Gentlemen of the Senate, and of the House of Delegates,

I transmit you herewith a statement of expenditures for repairs and furniture of the government house. The re-
